

Retailer Agreement for Sale of Lottery Tickets

This agreement, between the Illinois Department of the Lottery (“Lottery”) and the business entity named on Page 1, Step 1, of the companion, executed Form IDL-30, Retailer Contract for Sale of Lottery Tickets, together with its owners and officers, members or partners named on Page 2, Step 2, of that form (collectively, the “Retailer”), is effective on the date signed on behalf of the Lottery and will continue so long as the Retailer holds a valid license to sell Lottery products. The parties agree as follows:

- I. If the Retailer is granted a license to sell Lottery products, retention of that license is subject to the following conditions:
 - A. The Lottery sales license (“License”) is issued to Retailer, for a specified point of sale, on the condition that the Retailer maintains eligibility under the Illinois Lottery Law, 20 ILCS 1605, (“Lottery Law”), Lottery Regulations (Title 11, Subtitle C, Chapter II, Parts 1700.10 et seq. and 1770.10 et seq., Illinois Administrative Code) (the “Lottery Regulations”), and other rules or directives issued by the Lottery (“Lottery Rules”), all as amended or supplemented from time to time. The License may not be sold, transferred or assigned by the Retailer.
 - B. New Retailers are considered probationary for the first three months. At the end of the three-month probationary period, the Retailer will be recommended for (i) end of probationary period, (ii) another three-month probationary period, or (iii) termination, based upon compliance with Lottery requirements, instructions, and sales levels. In exercising the right to terminate a Retailer, the Lottery will consider, in part, the accessibility of the Retailer’s place of business to the public and the sufficiency of locations to serve the public’s convenience.
 - C. No Retailer may offer any other type of gambling or gaming tickets or chances other than those for which the Retailer is licensed, under the Lottery Law by the Lottery, or by other department, board, or commission of the State of Illinois.
 - D. The Retailer’s License and any placards or brochures stating odds for Lottery games must be displayed in a conspicuous place on the business premises specified in the License.
 - E. The Retailer must actively work to promote the sale of Lottery tickets and the Illinois Lottery and visibly display all required Lottery games and signage. The Retailer must maintain and display the current promotional materials in a prominent location, convenient and visible to the public. The Lottery reserves the right to terminate a Retailer’s License and the right to remove the on-line terminal and any peripheral Lottery equipment from the Retailer’s location when the following sales requirements are not met:
 1. New Retailers are expected to achieve a sales level comparable to existing Retailers in their regional area after they have been operational for a period of time. The Lottery reserves the right to establish a minimum weekly sales level for Retailer to offset all of the expenses associated with Lottery sales at the Retailer location (on-line terminal and peripheral equipment, promotion material, communication equipment, administrative costs, etc.). Retailers not achieving the minimum sales level will be given advance notice that they will have 13 weeks to bring their sales level to the minimum amount or possibly have their terminal removed and License terminated. In establishing a minimum sales level, and at the Lottery’s sole discretion, consideration may be given to factors such as geographic location, economic conditions, and other factors that may have an impact on Retailer’s ability to increase sales.
 2. Unless otherwise specified by the Lottery, a minimum number of instant games determined by the Lottery must be prominently displayed in a combination of price points, play styles, and book values prescribed by the Lottery. Retailers are expected to achieve average weekly sales of $100 per facing (instant game displayed).
 - F. Each Retailer will be held responsible for all instant game tickets accepted from the Lottery and all other Lottery tickets dispensed, printed or issued by or through any Lottery equipment provided to Retailer. Unsold instant game tickets and receipts from sales, minus commissions earned and prizes paid in accordance with the Lottery Rules, must be returned to the Lottery, its staff or its contractors by the stated settlement deadlines. Instant game tickets not returned by the deadline dates shall be considered purchased by the Retailer.
 - G. The Retailer may not sell a Lottery ticket or share at a price greater than fixed by Lottery Rules; however, the Lottery may authorize a coupon promotion or other discount promotion in support of Lottery marketing activities. The Retailer may not assess a “service charge” or “handling fee” for the sale of Lottery tickets, and may not charge a fee to redeem winning tickets.
 - H. Unless permitted by the Lottery, the Retailer must offer other goods or services for sale at the business location specified in the License. No License will be granted to a person to engage in business exclusively as a Lottery Retailer unless permitted by the Lottery.

The Retailer may sell Lottery tickets only on a face-to-face or authorized dispensing machine basis and only on the business premises designated in the License. The Retailer may not sell tickets to off-premises customers by telephone, mail, parcel delivery service, or through a Retailer-sponsored vehicle such as a club, players’ association, or similar entity.
 - I. The Retailer may not sell Lottery tickets or shares to anyone under the age of 18, or pay prizes to anyone under the age of 18.
 - J. If sufficient funds are on hand, the Retailer must redeem all winning tickets presented to the Retailer for cash or free ticket prizes of $600 or less. Retailer shall not redeem winning tickets valued at more than $600, but shall instead follow established claim procedures. The Lottery will not reimburse Retailer and Retailer is responsible for the amounts of any ticket prize payments made by the Retailer in error (including any unauthorized ticket prize payments that Retailer makes in excess of $600, if erroneous).
- II. The Retailer agrees with and represents to the Lottery that:

The Retailer will abide by the provisions of the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations and the Lottery Rules (copies of which Rules are available upon request). Retailer acknowledges that certain sales and marketing functions and operations of the Illinois Lottery are being conducted for the Lottery by Northstar Lottery Group, LLC (the “Private Manager”) pursuant to a management agreement with the Lottery (the “PMA”) in accordance with the Lottery Law and, as such, is a vendor or contractor to the Lottery.

Retailer Agreement for Sale of Lottery Tickets

- A. The Retailer will segregate from all of its other business receipts and funds and hold in trust all proceeds from Lottery sales, which the Retailer will deposit in a separate Lottery trust fund account in a bank or other financial institution from which the Retailer will pay to the Lottery, on time, the full amount due the Lottery in accordance with the procedures established by the Lottery. These proceeds must be kept separate and apart from other business or personal funds or accounts and must be segregated as a trust fund on behalf of the Lottery.
- B. The Retailer will attend all required training sessions as directed by the Lottery or its vendors, ensure that all employees selling Lottery tickets are properly trained, and assume total responsibility for errors made by the Retailer's employees.
- C. If directed by the Lottery, the Retailer will secure an instrument or method of payment acceptable to the Lottery (payment bond, letter of credit, cashier's check, or money order) as a security deposit, at its own expense, in the amount directed by the Lottery. Such instruments shall be made payable to the Lottery and deposited with the Lottery conditioned upon full and timely payment of all sums to the Lottery by the Retailer. The Lottery may also require a financial statement regarding the financial condition of the Retailer.

D. All information contained in Form IDL-30, Retailer Contract for Sale of Lottery Tickets, is accurate, true and correct.

- E. The Retailer will notify the Lottery, in writing, 30 days in advance of any Change in Ownership of the Retailer except to the extent the change occurs as a result of the transfer of interest in publicly traded securities, in which case the reporting must occur within 30 days after the transfer or at the time that any reporting of the ownership interest must be made to the federal Securities and Exchange Commission, whichever is earlier. Reporting may be accomplished by completing a Lottery form provided for such purpose or by mailing notice of the proposed change by certified mail, return receipt requested, postmarked on or before the 30th day prior to the effective date of change.

"Change of Ownership" means the transfer, in the aggregate, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the equity, management control, legal ownership or shares of stock of the Retailer designated in the License to individuals other than those already having an interest of 5% or more in the Retailer at the time of approval or renewal of the License.

Such notification shall be sent to:

Attn: Application Coordinator
Illinois Lottery
586 Territorial Drive, Unit A
Bolingbrook, Illinois 60440

Unless otherwise provided by the Lottery Regulations, purchasers of businesses holding Lottery Licenses wishing the business to remain licensed must apply for a new Lottery License in advance of the ownership transfer. This application will be reviewed as a new application. The award of a License to the business under new ownership is not guaranteed. Since Lottery Licenses are not transferable or assignable by the Retailer, a business sold or transferred prior to re-issuance of a License to the business under new ownership will have all instant Lottery tickets, on-line games terminals, and any peripheral Lottery equipment removed from the premises.

If a Retailer fails to notify the Lottery in writing of a Change of Ownership before such change occurs, all owners, officers, or other responsible persons named in the License application shall be liable to the Lottery for all tickets issued to or generated by the Retailer, and all proceeds from the sale of such tickets (less prizes paid and commissions due), to the date written notice of the change is received by the Lottery, or the date the Retailer's License is terminated by the Lottery, whichever occurs first.

- F. The Retailer will notify the Lottery at least 30 days prior to any proposed change in the point of sale designated in the License, Change of Name or Change of Business Organization.

"Change of Business Organization" means a change from one form of organization and ownership of the business to another, including, but not limited to, general partnerships, limited partnerships, corporations and proprietary ownership.

"Change of Name" means a change in the corporation or doing business as (dba) name shown on the records of the Secretary of State, County Clerk, or both, in the License granted to the Retailer and in the Retailer's application for a License.

- G. The Retailer will maintain the hours of operation listed in Page 1, Step 1, Business Type and Details, of Form IDL-30, Retailer Contract for Sale of Lottery Tickets. In the event of a change in hours or days of operation, the Retailer shall promptly notify the Lottery by sending written notice to the address listed in Paragraph II.E above.

- H. The Retailer for itself and for its officers and employees assumes responsibility for reading and being fully knowledgeable of available game play instructions of existing games and upon establishment of each new game.

- I. If granted a License, the Retailer will furnish electrical service and space for installation of the on-line terminal as specified by the Lottery, its staff or its vendors. The Retailer will not move the on-line terminal without the prior approval of the Lottery.

- J. The Lottery's on-line gaming terminal communicates with the central gaming system via a variety of channels, the most widely used being satellite. The Retailer will use every reasonable effort to provide an appropriate installation site for necessary components of the communication system, securing permission from the Retailer's landlord if and as necessary. Communication components may include a roof-mounted satellite receiver.

- K. The Retailer will immediately report any "out of order" conditions of Lottery terminals or other equipment to the Lottery or its designated vendors, pursuant to the Lottery's or its vendors' instructions.

- L. The Retailer will immediately report to the Lottery the loss or theft of any Lottery tickets consigned to the Retailer, with the ticket identification numbers, and will also immediately report the loss or theft of any Lottery equipment or supplies.

- M. The Retailer will hold the Lottery, the State of Illinois and the Private Manager harmless with respect to any liability arising in connection with the Retailer's Lottery ticket sales activities.

Retailer Agreement for Sale of Lottery Tickets

- N. The Retailer will keep current and accurate records of all operations in conjunction with Lottery sales. Such records shall be made available to representatives of the Lottery or the State of Illinois upon request.
- O. The Retailer authorizes the Lottery to transmit important Lottery announcements to the Retailer via fax or email.
- III. The Lottery agrees with and represents to the Retailer that:
- A. The Lottery will pay the Retailer a commission at such rate of the amount of all valid ticket sales as may be approved by the Lottery and communicated to the Retailer as well as any applicable bonus for winning tickets sold or redeemed by the Retailer at the rate approved by the Lottery and any additional cash bonuses or other incentives approved by the Lottery plus or minus adjustments including, but not limited to, a per-week service charge against an on-line Retailer's commission for applicable communications fees established pursuant to the Lottery Law and the Lottery Regulations. Retailers will be notified by the Lottery of changes to the commission rate, bonuses and incentives by means of a Retailer newsletter or other similar circular or via electronic messaging through the Retailer Lottery sales terminal.
- B. Equipment necessary for the sale of on-line games and instant tickets will be provided to the Retailer at no cost.
- IV. The Retailer's License to sell Lottery tickets may be revoked, suspended, or its renewal rejected as provided for in the Lottery Law and the Lottery Regulations. Reasons for revocation, suspension, or non-renewal include, but are not limited to:
- A. The Retailer used false or misleading information in obtaining a License or contract to sell Lottery products.
- B. The Retailer's bank account does not contain sufficient funds to pay the weekly Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) debit for the Retailer's Lottery settlement.
- C. The Retailer violates any other provisions of this contract, the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations or the Lottery Rules promulgated by the Lottery pursuant to the Lottery Law.
- D. The Retailer has failed to satisfy the requirements of any Illinois Tax Act or satisfy any tax liability to the Illinois Department of Revenue.
- V. The Lottery reserves the right to suppress the Retailer's terminal function if the Retailer is delinquent in settling the Lottery account or violates any rule or procedure of the Lottery. In the event of terminal suppression, the Retailer shall immediately stop selling and redeeming instant products until such time as terminal function is reestablished.
- VI. Any on-line terminals, instant ticket dispensing machines, in-counter or on-counter dispensers, manuals, tapes, cards, computer printouts, ticket stock, and other items (collectively "the equipment") furnished to the Retailer in connection with its function as a Lottery Retailer shall at all times remain the sole property of the Lottery or its vendors. It is understood that the arrangement with respect to the equipment is not a lease but that the equipment is in the Retailer's custody solely as a Licensed Retailer. The Retailer is responsible for any loss or damage to the equipment for any reason beyond reasonable wear and tear, and insurance coverage on the part of the Retailer is strongly recommended. Neither the Lottery nor its vendors are liable for or responsible to the Retailer or any third parties because of the granting of the License or this agreement or for any other reason, including for the Retailer's use of the on-line terminal's age-verification features for the sale of any products or merchandise, except as otherwise specified in this agreement.
- VII. The Lottery strongly recommends that only individuals 18 years or older sell Lottery tickets. However, there is presently no law prohibiting ticket sales by individuals under the age of 18 so long as applicable labor laws are followed.
- VIII. This agreement may be terminated, and as to C, below shall terminate:
- A. By Retailer, upon 30 days written notice to the Lottery, in which case the Retailer's License will be suspended from the effective date of termination to the earlier of the remainder of the duration of the License or reinstatement of the Agreement by agreement of the Retailer and the Lottery; or
- B. By the Lottery, without notice, whenever the Lottery reasonably believes the Retailer has violated any provision of the Lottery Law that causes the Retailer to become ineligible to hold a Lottery license, or any provision of the Lottery Regulations that provides for termination without notice.
- C. Automatically upon the revocation, suspension or non-renewal of the Retailer's License, provided that this agreement will be automatically reinstated for the remainder of the term of the License if the revocation or suspension is lifted and the License reinstated, or if the License is renewed by the Lottery.
- IX. The Retailer agrees to comply with all federal and state laws, rules, and regulations that prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, or gender, and, where applicable, to comply with all laws, rules, and regulations requiring payment of prevailing wages.
- X. The Retailer certifies that it will perform its duties pursuant to this agreement in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 USC 12101 et seq.) as it applies to the Retailer's business.
- XI. This agreement is not intended to contain all requirements, obligations or liabilities applicable to or imposed on Retailer under the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations and the Lottery Rules. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this agreement and the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations and the Lottery Rules, the provisions of the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations and the Lottery Rules shall prevail and control. Retailer is required to comply at all times with all applicable provisions of the Lottery Law, the Lottery Regulations and other Lottery Rules, and to cooperate with the Lottery's vendors, including the Private Manager in the performance of its functions under the PMA, in all aspects of its Lottery operations. Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails.

Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Instructions for Completing W-9 Form

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.–China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.–China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first Protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Instructions for Completing W-9 Form

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate instructions for the Requestor of Form W-9. Also see Special Rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding.

If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

Instructions for Completing W-9 Form

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,
7. A foreign central bank of issue,
8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
10. A real estate investment trust,
11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
13. A financial institution,
14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees list above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for...	THEN the payment is exempt for...
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on pages 2-3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

 A background investigation is conducted for the applicant and each owner/officer/partner/member (a "principal") of the applicant business, if an entity, as part of the Retailer Licensing/Approval process. If you or, if the applicant is an entity, the applicant or any other principal of the business/applicant have been convicted of any offense defined in or under the Illinois Criminal Code or the criminal code of any other State, or of a criminal offense under any federal law, you must submit a separate statement setting forth the name of the offender, the nature of the offense, the state and county or federal court in which the criminal conviction occurred, the date of the conviction, the sentence, and any other information you may wish to add. Further, you must submit a statement if anyone listed on the Retailer licensing application has ever been found guilty of fraud or misrepresentation, has been a gambling promoter or professional gambler, or has been engaged in bookmaking or other forms of illegal gambling.
